

Sit It

Sit.it, designed by Sergio Bellin and Dorigo Design, is a collection of managerial and executive seats with a structured linearity, with a steel and aluminium frame, offered in various fine upholsteries. An office classic, available in the executive, managerial and meeting versions, which affords impeccable comfort, thanks to the padded cushions, made with different densities. The stylish design of the armrests blends in seamlessly with the seat, characterising the entire collection.
